YMCA Employee & Volunteer Abuse Prevention Code of Conduct

YMCA staff and volunteers work by a code. This code was put in place to establish appropriate behavior. YMCA employees and volunteers are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that will not reflect adversely on the YMCA. If a single child is left to the supervision of one employee or volunteer, that employee or volunteer is required to position themselves to be visible by others. Staff and volunteers shall never leave a child unsupervised. Staff and volunteers will portray a positive role model for youth.

Childcare: Staff may not release children to anyone other than the authorized parent or guardian, and those individuals indicated by parent/guardian as authorized to pick up. Staff members who do not recognize the custodial parent or legal guardian must ask for identification and check it against file information. Staff or volunteers may not be alone with children they meet in YMCA programs outside of the YMCA. This includes babysitting. For a complete copy of the YMCA of the Treasure Coast Employee and Volunteer Code of Conduct, if you have any questions, or see any violations of the above guidelines, please notify Charlene Foster, Director of HR, at 772-286-4444 x235 or cfoster@ymcatreasurecoast.org. Thank you for working with us to keep all children safe.

I KNOW IT IS MY RESPONSIBILITY TO READ AND UNDERSTAND ALL YMCA POLICIES AND THE CAMP TUITION SCHEDULE.

*If you receive financial assistance through the YMCA for summer camp tuition, your signature below authorizes the YMCA of the Treasure Coast to share this application and information about your child with the Children's Services Council of Martin County should they request it.
